Copy of Record: You may request to inspect the personal health record FOG has generated about you. We may charge you a reasonable fee for copying and mailing your records.

Release of record: You may consent in writing to release your record to others for any purpose you choose. This could include your attorney, employer, or others who you wish to have knowledge of your care. You may revoke this consent at any time, but only to the extent no action has been taken in reliance on your prior authorization.

Restriction of Record: You may ask us not to use or disclose part of the personal health information. This request must be in writing. FOG is not required to agree to your request if we believe it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of the information. The request should be given to the Practice Manager who will consult with the staff involved in your care to determine if the request can be granted.

Amending Record: If you believe that something in your record is incorrect or incomplete, you may request we amend it. To do this, contact the Practice Manager and ask for the Request to Amend Health Information Form. In certain cases, we may deny your request. If we deny your request for an amendment, you have the right to file a statement stating that you disagree with us. We will then add our response and your statement to your record.

Accounting for Disclosures: You may request a listing of any disclosures we have made related to your personal health information, except for information we used for treatment, payment, or healthcare operations purposes or that we shared with you or your family, or information that you gave us specific consent to release. It also excludes information we were required to release. To receive information regarding disclosure made for a specific time period, no longer than six years, and after April 14, 2003, please submit your request in writing to our Practice Manager. We will notify you of the cost involved in preparing this list.
